JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

FIRST DAY—WEDNESDAY

Trinity Methodist Church,
Sumter, S. C., October 27, 1943.

Opening.—The one hundred and fifty-eighth session of the South Carolina Annual Conference was convened in Trinity Church, Sumter, S. C., at 7:30 p. m., Bishop William T. Watkins, of the Columbia Area, in the Chair. After singing the hymn, "And Are We Yet Alive," J. T. Peeler led the Conference in prayer. The choir of Trinity Methodist Church sang an Anthem and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by the Bishop, assisted by the District Superintendents. The Conference then sang the hymn "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross."

Roll Call.—George K. Way, Secretary of the last Conference, called the roll and 117 clerical and 42 lay delegates answered to their names. On motion of J. E. Clark, it was decided to postpone the making of substitutions in the lay delegations until the morning session of Thursday; and to read at that time only the list of the absentees of Wednesday's session.

Secretaries.—George K. Way was elected secretary, with R. Bryce Herbert, Henry F. Collins, and J. C. Smiley, assistants. W. A. Beckham was elected statistical secretary with J. C. Inabinet for Charleston District, W. F. Baker for Florence District, J. L. Sandlin for Kingstree District, T. B. Smith for Marion District, J. G. Ferguson for Orangeburg District, F. C. Smith for Sumter District, and C. O. Shuler and C. L. Parker (special) assistants.

Nominations.—Nominations for Annual Committees and for vacancies on Boards and Committees were made by Woodrow Ward, secretary of the Cabinet, and they were elected as follows:

Public Worship: Bishop W. T. Watkins, J. R. Johnson, W. D. Gleaton, Welborne Summers, J. R. Chandler.

Daily Journal—J. Emerson Ford, S. M. Atkinson, J. F. Trammell. Memoirs: E. K. Garrison for R. R. Doyle; D. A. Phillips for J. H. Noland; W. R. Phillips for W. J. Snyder; S. O. Cantey for E. L. McCoy; Irvin Frye for J. W. Hudson.

Committee on Investigation: F. E. Dibble, W. D. Gleaton, R. Bryce Herbert, W. Roy Phillips, F. C. Smith. Reserves: R. R. Tucker, G. H. Varn.

Accepted Supplies: H. F. Collins, C. S. Floyd, S. M. Atkinson, W. M. Mitchum, T. E. Derrick, F. E. Dibble, T. C. Shuler, B. G. Murphy, L. E. Pope, Jr., H. L. F. Shuler.

Conference Relations and Ministerial Qualifications: Terms Expiring in 1946: J. E. Clark, Peter Stokes, C. L. Woodard.

To Fill Vacancies on Boards

World Service and Finance: J. F. Trammell in place of J. D. Griffin.

Board of Trustees, S. C. Conference, S. E. Jurisdiction: Terms Expiring 1946, R. Leo Carter, John S. Bowman, J. H. Wannamaker; Term Expiring 1944, H. F. Collins in place of J. T. Fowler.

Bar and Hours.—On motion of W. D. Gleaton, pastor-host, the bar and hours were fixed as follows: Convene at 9:30 a. m. and adjourn at 1 p. m., with afternoon and evening services at 3:30 and 7:30, adjournment at will. The main auditorium was fixed as the bar of the Conference.

Welcome.—Cordial words of welcome were addressed to the Conference by Mayor F. B. Creech, Rev. J. P. Simpson, President of the Sumter Ministerial association and pastor of Grace Baptist Church, and J. R. Chandler, Chairman of the Board of Stewards of Trinity Methodist Church. Bishop Watkins responded on behalf of the Conference.

Question 1.—What are the reports of the District Superintendents as to the status of the work within their Districts? was called, and the following District Superintendents gave interesting reports of the work done in the six districts: Woodrow Ward, Charleston District; J. E. Clark (acting District Superintendent), Florence District; A. F. Ragan, Kingstree District; S. E. Ledbetter, Marion District; George K. Way, Orangeburg District, and J. Ross Johnson, Sumter District.

Guest speaker announced.—Bishop Watkins announced that the Conference would have the opportunity of hearing Dr. John W. Rustin, Pastor of Mt. Vernon Place Methodist Church, Washington, D. C., at the Devotional Hour preceding each morning session and at the evening hour of each day of the Conference. He also announced that Dr. G. Ray Jordan, Pastor of First Methodist Church, Charlotte, N. C., would be the guest speaker for the Board of Missions at its anniversary session Thursday morning at 11:00 o'clock.

Introductions.—The following visitors were introduced to the Conference: Dr. Wm. F. Quillian of the General Board of Missions and Church Extension; Dr. H. W. McPherson of the General Board of Education; Dr. J. M. Rast, President of Lander College and a member of the Upper South Carolina Conference; Dr. Walter K. Greene, President of Wofford College; Dr. J. C. Guilds, President of Columbia College.

Adjournment.—After the announcements the Conference adjourned with the benediction by Bishop Watkins.

SECOND DAY—THURSDAY

October 28, 1943.

Opening—The Conference was called to order at 9:30 a. m., Bishop Watkins in the chair. After singing the hymn "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing" the Conference was led in prayer by T. G. Herbert. Bishop Watkins then introduced Dr. John W. Rustin who spoke on the subject "When Is God Near?"

Approval of the minutes—The Committee on the Daily Journal reported that the secretary had requested that the minutes of Wednesday evening's session be held for approval along with those of Thursday morning. The request was granted.

Completion of Roll Call—The secretary called the roll of the absentees of yesterday's session. On motion, the secretary was instructed to dispense with further calling of the roll; preachers and district superintendents being requested to report the arrival of absentees to the secretary.

Substitutions—The following substitutions for lay delegates were announced: C. S. Anderson for J. W. Black, H. C. Eason for E. A. Williams, C. E. Youmans for L. F. Humphries and Mrs. H. D. Shuler for Mrs. D. E. Goodson, lay delegates from the Charleston District. J. S. Howle for M. W. Arnold, Wilson Taylor for C. H. Grimsley, G. L. Fletcher for O. J. Fletcher, George Hoffmeyer for L. C. Jordan, and P. H. DuBose for R. H. Griffith, lay delegates from the Florence District.

H. W. Perrow for J. M. Springs, F. N. Dantzler for P. L. Shuler and J. V. Hickman for Geo. D. Hooker, lay delegates from the Orangeburg District.

Miss Viola Barfield for J. T. Stover, E. W. Hartin for J. R. Chandler and H. P. Lee for Luther Fields, lay delegates from the Sumter District.

Resolutions—A. D. Betts read the following resolutions:

"Resolved, 1st: That we begin voting for General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates as soon as the class has been received into Full Connection.

"Resolved, 2nd: That before the second and subsequent ballots are taken the results of the preceding ballots shall be placed in writing (on blackboard or otherwise) before the Conference and said record shall include the names of all persons receiving five (5) or more votes."

The resolutions were adopted.

Question 17—Who are admitted into Full Connection, was called. Angus McKay Brabham, Jr., Max Hendrix Christopher, Webb Black Garrison, Carl Lafayette Parker, and Ernest Perry Bell, after giving satisfactory answers to the Disciplinary questions and being recommended by the Committee on Conference Relations and Ministerial Qualifications and the Committee on Ministerial Training, by vote of the Conference, were admitted into Full Connection. The name of Sidney Randolph Crumpton was called and the Bishop announced that he could not be admitted into Full Connection unless present in person. His attendance was prevented by his duties as a Chaplain in the United States Army.

Ballot—Before taking the first ballot for General Conference Delegates, George K. Way, secretary, announced that there were 160 clerical members of the Conference, entitling the South Carolina Conference to two (2) delegates to the General Conference and five (5) to the Jurisdictional Conference, with an equal number of lay delegates.

Bishop Watkins called the attention of the Conference to its own standing rule requiring (see rule S. 1) separate balloting for General and Jurisdictional delegates.

Woodrow Ward, secretary of the Cabinet, read the following nominations for membership on the Board of Managers for the election:

Clerical—G. H. Varn, Chief Teller, Victor R. Hickman, A. M. Jones, T. M. Godbold, J. G. Ferguson and F. C. Smith.

Lay—J. F. Kinney, Chief Teller, F. O. Bates, J. H. Tiller, W. E. Rogers, John S. Bowman and W. C. McDowell.

They were elected.

The first ballot for delegates to the General Conference was ordered, the ballot to show two names. The ballot was taken and the tellers retired.

Change in number of Districts—Bishop Watkins recognized J. Ross Johnson who presented, in behalf of the Cabinet, a resolution to change a standing rule of the Conference (Rule N-1), reducing the number of Districts from six to five. The resolution was referred to the Committee on Standing Rules.

Conference Becomes Committee on Standing Rules—On motion of W. Roy Phillips, the Conference resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole on Standing Rules to consider the resolution concerning the reduction of the number of Districts. W. Roy Phillips was elected Chairman of this committee and the Bishop yielded the chair to him. John M. Shingler was elected secretary for the Committee.

Conference Resumed—Upon the completion of the work of the Conference acting as a Committee of the Whole, the Ecclesiastical Conference resumed its duties.

Extension of time—On motion of A. D. Betts the Conference agreed to extend the time of the morning session sufficiently to observe the anniversary of the Board of Missions and to hear the report of the Committee on Standing Rules.

Order of the Day—Acting under special order, the Conference heard Report No. 1 of the Board of Missions and Church Extension, after which E. K. Garrison, Chairman of the Board of Missions and Church Extension, introduced Dr. G. Ray Jordan, who addressed the Conference on the interests of this Board. The report was adopted.

Ballot Report—The secretary announced the results of the first ballot for delegates to the General Conference as follows: Lay ballot—total votes cast 79, necessary to election 40. No one received the necessary number of votes to be elected.

Clerical ballot—total number of votes cast 121, illegal ballot 1, legal ballots 120, necessary to election 61. J. Emerson Ford, having received 68 votes, was declared elected as delegate to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Recommendation—Standing Rules—The Committee on Standing Rules presented the following recommendation—"That standing rule N-1 be amended to read "There shall be five (5) Districts in the South Carolina Annual Conference."

It was adopted.

Introductions—Bishop Watkins introduced Dr. R. C. Petry, Professor of Church History, Duke University, to the Conference.

Adjournment—After the announcements the Conference adjourned with the benediction by Dr. G. Ray Jordan.

THIRD DAY—FRIDAY

October 29, 1943.

Opening—The Conference was called to order at 9:30 A. M., Bishop Watkins in the chair. The hymn "O Worship the King" was sung. After the responsive reading, M. L. Banks led the Conference in prayer. Dr. John W. Rustin then addressed the Conference, using as his theme "What Do We Mean By a Return to Religion?"

Approval of Minutes—The Committee on Daily Journal reported that the minutes of the sessions of Wednesday evening and Thursday morning were correct. The report was received as information.

Publishing House—Mr. A. B. Johnson, representative of the Methodist Publishing House, was introduced to the Conference. He called attention to the book display and presented a check for $2,068.41, as the share of this Conference in the earnings of the Publishing House. The Bishop handed the check to J. M. Ariail, Chairman of the Board of Conference Claimants.

Gift of Duncan Memorial—C. C. Herbert presented a check from a layman of Duncan Memorial Church, Georgetown, for $100.00 for the Board of Conference Claimants.

Resolutions—Bishop Darlington—The following resolutions were read by J. Emerson Ford, and adopted by a rising vote:

"Whereas, Bishop U. V. W. Darlington, whose first episcopal service included the presidency of the South Carolina Conference, has been sorely bereaved in recent weeks because of the loss of two sons in the armed forces of the country, be it

"Resolved, That we hereby express to Bishop and Mrs. Darlington the sympathy of the Conference and the people of our churches, praying that they may experience constantly the presence and sustaining Grace of our heavenly Father, and pledging to them our tender and abiding affection."

"J. Emerson Ford.

"S. O. Cantey."

Committee on Memorials—On motion of Geo. K. Way, the Bishop was requested to appoint a committee of five (5) to act as a Committee on Memorials to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

The motion was adopted.

Greetings—The secretary read a telegram from Sidney R. Crumpton, expressing his regret that his duty prevented his presence at the Conference, and his best wishes to the Conference.

Second Ballot—The second ballot for delegates to the General Conference was ordered—the lay ballot for two delegates and the clerical ballot for one delegate. The ballot was taken and the tellers retired.

Chair—Bishop Watkins requested J. Emerson Ford to take the chair during the preparation of the ballot. The Bishop resumed the chair before the ballot was closed.

Introduction—Having been recognized by the Chairman, E. A. Wilkes introduced Miss Bertha Rachel Palmer, Director of Narcotic Education for the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, who was to address the Conference later.

Resolutions—H. F. Collins read three resolutions calling for Conference action to abolish the present 2% payment from ministers' salaries to the Conference Claimants; and calling for a Christmas offering for Conference Claimants; and calling for a distribution of all funds on the basis of years of service.

Resolution No. 1 was rejected and action on the two remaining resolutions was automatically deferred by a Special Order.

By common consent the Special Order was postponed to permit a report of the second ballot for delegates to the General Conference and the taking of a third ballot.

Report—Second Ballot—The secretary announced the results of the second ballot for delegates to the General Conference. Lay ballot—Total ballots cast 53. Illegal ballots 1. Total legal ballots 52. Necessary to elect 27. J. C. Guilds, having received 30 votes, was declared elected a delegate to the General Conference.

Clerical ballot. Total ballots cast 105. Total legal ballots 105. Necessary to elect 53. No election.

Third Ballot—The third ballot for delegates to the General Conference was ordered—the ballot to be for one lay and one clerical delegate. The ballot was taken and the tellers retired.

Special Order—Board of Education—Acting under special order, the Conference considered the interests of the Board of Education. W. Roy Phillips, chairman of the Board, presided. John M. Shingler read Report No. 1 of the Board of Education, after which Dr. H. W. McPherson, of the General Board of Education, addressed the Conference concerning the work of this Board. Report No. 1 was adopted.

Greetings—Dr. Snyder—On motion of J. Emerson Ford the secretary was instructed to send a message of greeting to Dr. Henry Nelson Snyder, Honorary President of Wofford College.

Report—Third Ballot—The secretary reported the result of the third ballot for delegates to the General Conference. Lay ballot—Total ballots cast 57. Illegal ballots 5. Total legal ballots 52. Necessary to elect 27. Will Stackhouse, having received 32 votes, was declared elected a delegate to the General Conference, thus completing the election of delegates to the General Conference.

Clerical ballot—Total ballots cast 106. Total legal ballots 106. Necessary to elect 54. No election.

New Ballots—On motion of the secretary, the Special Order for the Commission on World Service and Finance was postponed for the purpose of taking another ballot. The first ballot for lay delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference—with three names—was ordered.

The fourth ballot for clerical delegates to the General Conference was ordered—with one name. The ballots were taken and the tellers retired.

Committee on Memorials—Bishop Watkins announced the following names to compose the Committee on Memorials to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences: B. M. Bowen, C. C. Herbert, H. L. F. Shuler, George J. Bethea and J. M. Ariail.

Dr. Parker—Emory—Bishop Watkins introduced Dr. Franklin N. Parker, Dean Emeritus of the Candler School of Theology, Emory University, who briefly addressed the Conference concerning the interests of the University.

Report—Fourth Clerical Ballot General Conference—The secretary announced the results of the fourth clerical ballots for delegates to the General Conference. Total ballots cast 96. Total legal ballots 96. Necessary to elect 49. No election.

Special Order—World Service—Acting under a special order, the Conference considered the interests of the Commission on World Service and Finance. Report No. 1 of the Commission was read by Paul Whitaker, and J. T. Peeler, chairman, presented Dr. Wm. F. Quillian, a member of the staff of the General Board of Missions and Church Extension, who addressed the Conference. Report No. 1 was adopted.

First Lay Ballot Report—Jurisdictional Conference—The secretary announced the results of the first lay ballot for delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference. Number of votes cast 53. Illegal ballots 3.

Total legal ballots 50. Necessary to election 26. F. O. Bates having received 26 votes was declared elected a delegate to the Jurisdictional Conference.

Time extended—On motion of J. E. Clark another ballot was ordered. On motion of A. D. Betts the time was extended in order to hear the visiting speakers scheduled for the morning.

Introduction—Dr. A. Thomas McIlwain, Executive Secretary of the Board of Pensions, was introduced to the Conference by the Bishop.

Ballot Taken—The second lay ballot for delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference was ordered with two names and the fifth clerical ballot for delegates to the General Conference was ordered with one name. The ballot was taken and the tellers retired.

Special Order—Acting under a special order, the Conference heard Report No. 1 of the Board of Temperance, and Miss Bertha Rachel Palmer addressed the Conference.

Ballot report—The secretary announced the results of the second ballot for lay delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference. Total ballots cast 50. Illegal ballots 4. Total legal ballots 46. Necessary for election 24. Charlton DuRant with 30 votes and J. F. Kinney with 26 votes were declared elected delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference, thus completing the election of the principal lay delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference.

The secretary announced the result of the fifth clerical ballot for delegates to the General Conference. Total ballots cast 98. Illegal ballots 1. Total legal ballots 97. Necessary to election 49. Woodrow Ward, having received 49 votes, was declared elected a delegate to the General Conference, thus completing the General Conference delegation.

Reserve delegates—On motion of A. D. Betts it was decided that there be three reserve delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference.

Announcement—Memorial Session—Bishop Watkins announced that by invitation the Cabinet had set Broad Street Church as the place for the holding of the Memorial Session of the Conference in the afternoon at 3:30. He also announced that due to urgent Cabinet duties he would not be able to be present and asked T. G. Herbert to preside at that session.

Time extended—On motion of S. E. Ledbetter, the time was extended to hear a resolution read by George Hoffmeyer, a layman of the Florence District, asking that the Conference repeal Rule P-1 dealing with the salaries of district superintendents. See Discipline Paragraphs 840 and 841. The resolution automatically went to the Committee on Standing Rules.

Adjournment—After announcements the Conference adjourned with the benediction by Bishop Watkins.

MEMORIAL SESSION—FRIDAY AFTERNOON

October 29, 1943.

Opening—At the request of Bishop Watkins, T. G. Herbert presided at the Memorial service held in Broad Street Church. After singing the hymn "On Jordan's Stormy Banks I Stand," T. G. Herbert read the Twenty-third Psalm and led the Conference in prayer. The hymn "It Singeth Low in Every Heart" was sung, after which the memoirs of the men who had died during the year were read as follows: that of R. R. Doyle by E. K. Garrison; that of J. W. Hudson, having been written by Irvin Frye, was read by L. D. Hamer; that of J. Hubert Noland by D. A. Phillips; that of W. J. Snyder by W. Roy Phillips; and that of E. L. McCoy by S. O. Cantey.

Upon the suggestion of the Chairman, several members of the Conference spoke words of appreciation of the men whose memoirs had been read.

The assistant secretary, R. Bryce Herbert, then read the names of Mrs. J. A. Graham, wife of J. A. Graham, and Mrs. Watson B. Duncan, widow of the late Watson B. Duncan, who had died during the year.

The Conference sang the doxology and was dismissed with the benediction by D. A. Phillips.

FOURTH DAY—SATURDAY—MORNING

October 30, 1943.

Opening—Conference was called to order at 9:30 a. m., Bishop Watkins in the chair. After singing the hymn "For the Beauty of the Earth," the Bishop led the Conference in the Responsive Reading for the 31st Sunday—selection 1. C. B. Burns led in prayer. After words of appreciation by Bishop Watkins for the messages of Dr. Rustin each morning and evening, Dr. Rustin delivered his concluding message on the words of Paul, "Cast down, but not in despair," closing with prayer.

Approval of Minutes—The Committee on Daily Journal reported that the minutes of yesterday's session and the Memorial Session of yesterday afternoon had been examined and found correct.

Report—Standing Rules—The Committee on Standing Rules reported concurrence on the resolution providing for the deleting of Rule P-1 relating to the support of district superintendents. The report was adopted.

Report—Commission on World Service and Finance—Paul Whitaker read Report No. 3 of the Commission on World Service and Finance. The report was adopted.

Resolution—George K. Way presented resolutions concerning the disposition of the parsonage at Florence as follows and they were adopted:

"Whereas, by action of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the number of Districts has been reduced to five, and,

"Whereas, the Florence District Parsonage will be left vacant, therefore be it

"Resolved 1. That the said Florence District Parsonage with furnishings be turned over to the trustees of the South Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, to be held by the said trustees.

"Resolved 2. That the said South Carolina Conference trustees are hereby directed to make available to the Board of Education of the South Carolina Conference for its use if it is so desired, the said Florence District parsonage and furnishings.

"Resolved 3. That in this event, the Board of Education of the South Carolina Conference shall be under the obligation to maintain the insurance on the house and furnishings in the name of the trustees of the South Carolina Conference and to preserve the building in a good state of repair.

"Resolved 4. That at the termination of such use by the Board of Education of the South Carolina Conference, the property shall be restored to the Board of Trustees of the South Carolina Conference in a relatively good state of repair.

Resolutions of Thanks

"Whereas, in the providence of God we have been permitted to hold our 1943 annual session in the lovely city of Sumter, meeting in Trinity and St. Marks churches, and

"Whereas, the hospitality of our hosts has been so really and unselfishly extended to us, even in spite of the unusual and trying days of war; and

"Whereas, the members of the Entertainment Committee with others who have been active in the plans for the Conference, have labored under most difficult and almost baffling circumstances, in view of the very crowded condition of Sumter due to her splendid contribution to the war effort through opening her homes and hearts to the personnel and families of personnel of Shaw Field; therefore, be it

"Resolved, 1. That we express our heartfelt thanks to Sumter, her mayor, her ministers, her people, for their many generous and wholehearted deeds of kindness and thoughtfulness.

2. That we extend to our hosts and hostesses our deep appreciation of the gracious and fine hospitality, for all they have done to make our stay here pleasant and joyous.

3. That we extend to our pastor-hosts, the Revs. W. D. Gleaton of Trinity Church, Welborne Summers of St. Marks Church, and J. Ross Johnson, Sumter District Superintendent; Mr. Claude E. Hurst, chairman of the Conference Steering committee, Mr. Roy H. Tucker, chairman of the Homes Committee, and the other members of these and other committees, who have labored long and earnestly and successfully for our good, our appreciation of their great service to us.

4. That we thank the local newspapers for their courtesies and splendid coverage of the Conference and its proceedings.

5. That we express our deep and abiding love and affection for our beloved Bishop Watkins; our heartfelt appreciation of his skillful and sagacious dispatch of conference affairs; his friendliness and warm sympathy; his spirit of fairness and impartiality; his quiet patience with and confidence in minister and layman alike; his great and gripping message of eternal optimism.

6. That we express our thanks to Dr. John W. Rustin for his timely and inspiring messages which have stirred us to the realization of the deep need of our times for God, and for us, as God's messengers and witnesses, to do our part in the making of a new world among and for men, and that we thank our other brethren from afar who have come to us with their messages of hope, encouragement and faith.

Respectfully submitted,

L. D. Hamer.

W. A. Beckham.

R. Bryce Herbert."

Resolutions on return of Bishop Watkins—A. D. Betts read the following resolution requesting the return of Bishop Watkins:

"Resolved, That we request the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference to return our beloved Bishop William T. Watkins to this Episcopal Area for the next Quadrennium.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES

Your Committee on Conference Objectives recommends the following suggestions for the Conference year 1943-44:

1. The fires of destructive powers are not only destroying the homes but the lives and the souls of men. These conditions call us to set the flame of the Eternal to burning within the hearts of men that it may destroy that which would prevent the children of God from building His Kingdom here on earth. The Conference is commended for its material progress and is urged to gain the spiritual as well as material support of men. Methodism's early leaders had a passion for souls; let us both as ministers and laymen prove ourselves still true to the Great Commission, and come to our next Annual Conference with a report showing that we are growing spiritually as well as materially.

2. Let us minister to those in the armed forces by correspondence, sending of devotional materials, and visiting often in the homes of their families. Our church should surround those who are now stationed in our midst with wholesome recreation, sincere hospitality, and spiritual sustenance. Remembering our responsibilities to the victims of war and to those in our country's service, we recommend receiving at each communion service the Fellowship of Suffering and Service offering.

3. We request that every congregation in the Conference send a representative, or representatives, to Sumter on January 17, 1944, to participate in the Crusade for a New World Order, and that every local church sponsor a school of missions based on our mission study book, "The Church and the New World Order."

4. We recommend that our Conference go on record as giving its moral support to the temperance education program being attempted through the State Council of Alcohol Education, and that at least one Sunday in the year be devoted to the cause of temperance.

5. In view of the Church School enrollment of approximately 39,000, and recorded church membership of nearly 72,000, we urge that strenuous efforts be made to enlist all church members as members of the Church School. We need to give greater emphasis to the importance of the Adult Home Department. Our churches need to actively participate in the program of the United Christian Advance. The records of the past year show that we have given only a very nominal support.

6. In view of the alarming shortage of Christian workers both at home and abroad, and the anticipated need of the immediate future, coupled with the fact that training advantages are better than in past years, we urge our ministers and laymen to enlist Christian young men and women for full time service. We also request our ministers to preach annually on the "Call to Christian Service."

PAUL WHITAKER.

C. L. WOODARD.

PIERCE E. COOK.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS

The Journals of the Charleston, Kingstree, Orangeburg, and Sumter Districts have been carefully examined by your committee, and we find them neatly and accurately kept.

Respectfully submitted,

J. R. DENNIS, Chairman.

W. F. BAKER, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION REPORT NO. 1

Your Conference Board of Education, in the following brief summary of activities in the field of Christian Education, presents some revealing facts pertaining to the various interests of the Conference program.

From the report of the Executive Secretary your Board realizes that this year, with all its impediments and difficulties, has been an exceptionally fine one in the training of leadership. A total of 1139 credits have been awarded in all our training enterprises. This means that in the thirteen training schools of the local churches, in the Pastors' School, in the Youth Assembly, in the Youth Conference and Leadership School at Lake Junaluska, and in the college classes 1043 persons have done serious work in preparing for places of leadership in our church.

In addition many persons have been enlisted in our educational program by the informal training enterprises such as institutes, conferences, youth caravans, camps and assembly. Unquestionably the trained leadership filtered into our local churches by these training processes will undergird our plans for reaching thousands of children, youth and adults in our Conference.

The Adult Division

Rev. E. S. Dunbar, reporting on the Adult Activities as Conference Director of Adult Work, states that the emphases in this division have been: World Service, the Adult Home Department, the Young Adult Fellowship, and the Christian Education Advance. In each of these phases of the work there is reason to believe that progress has been made during the year.

In spite of restrictions on travel the third Annual Young Adult Fellowship, held in June, was most successful. Rev. Pierce E. Cook, Conference President, notes in his report that the Fellowship offered most profitable instruction and inspiration to those who attended and that several new Fellowships have been organized in local churches. Your Board has the conviction that our Young Adults are on the march and that our church at last offers a challenging program for them.

Youth Work

Your Board has pride in reporting to this Conference that our activities for youth have reached more young people this year than in any previous year. Rev. J. D. Griffin, reporting as Dean of the Youth Assembly, shows that 267 youth attended the Golden Jubilee session of the Assembly this summer. Our camping program, extended this year to four weeks for the two age-groups, under the leadership of Rev. J. F. M. Hoffmeyer, attracted a capacity attendance. Actually a number of young people were turned away because of insufficient room. In Assembly and Camps over 700 young people felt the influence of our program. About 100 trained leaders conducted the programs.

One Youth Caravan visited seven churches in the Conference.

We find that the Methodist Youth Fund has been supported by quite a large number of local youth fellowships.

The Children's Division

The work of the Children's Division has progressed under the direction of Mrs. E. S. Dunbar, the Conference Director, in a fine manner. The corps of children's workers conducted planning conferences and Vacation Church School institutes with the result that there has been a decided increase in interest in the Vacation Schools. Your Board believes that one of the most efficient pieces of work done by these children's workers was the two-day conferences held with the Columbia College and Winthrop students who were given guidance to work in Vacation Schools when they returned to their homes in the summer.

Church School Rally Day

Effective promotional planning was done for the Church School Rally Day observance this year with the result that we have received the highest offering of the past eight years.

A Review of Our Work

As your Board reviews the work of the year there is the feeling that advances have been made in practically every phase of our total program. Our Executive Secretary, who retires this year, has for eight years built steadily a vigorous and sustained program. His tireless, persistent, and careful planning and execution of the work of this Board has resulted in a permanent contribution to the educational effort of this Conference. For his energy, his intelligence, and his consecration in this work we are grateful.

Respectfully submitted,

W. ROY PHILLIPS, Chairman.

JOHN M. SHINGLER, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION
REPORT NO. 2*WOFFORD COLLEGE

By previous action of the two conferences of South Carolina Methodism, Wofford College has been given the period from 1940 to 1945 to project and complete its program of promotion and rehabilitation.

In this program of promotion and rehabilitation at Wofford College, Marion District is raising $15,000.00 for the remodeling of Snyder Hall; Orangeburg District is raising $20,000.00 to remodel Carlisle Hall; and Spartanburg District is raising $50,000.00 to beautify the campus.

Beginning January 1, 1944, the College will initiate a program in the remaining eight districts of the two South Carolina Conferences to raise $100,000.00 for the purpose of erecting a Student Activities Building and a War Memorial Chapel. We endorse this program of the College and pledge our cooperation and support in the raising of this fund.

W. ROY PHILLIPS, Chairman.
JOHN M. SHINGLER, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION
REPORT NO. 3*SOUTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL*Report of the Dean

The 1943 session of the South Carolina Pastors' School was held at Columbia College, June 21-25, 1943. The following courses were offered: "Contemporaneous Religious Thought and Movements," taught by Dr. Harris Franklin Rall; "The Pastor and His Task," led by Dr. Lester Rumble; "The Church and Rural Welfare," taught by Dr. C. M. McConnell; and "Christian Bases of World Order," led by Bishop Edwin F. Lee.

Enrolled in the school were two hundred and two persons, one hundred and seventy-seven of whom received credit cards. While there were fewer persons enrolled this year than last, the records show that there was a much higher percentage of the ministers who worked for credit this year. This indicates a growing interest in study achievements in the school.

The treasurer's report shows that the receipts for the expenses of the school this year amounted to $1050.00 from two sources: From the Commission on Courses of Study, $250.00 and from the Conference appropriations, $800.00. The total in expenditures was $652.83, leaving a balance of $397.17.

The Dean and the Board of Managers have begun plans for the 1944 session, but details as to the faculty and courses cannot be given at this time.

Respectfully submitted,

R. Wright Spears, Dean.

Your Board of Education recommends the adoption of this report.

W. ROY PHILLIPS, Chairman.

JOHN M. SHINGLER, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION
REPORT NO. 4*REPORT OF BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

The Southern Christian Advocate has had a good year. The circulation increased from 10,214 as of October 1, 1942, to 11,072 at the same date of 1943. This increase parallels a similar increase of 1,000 in the preceding year, indicating a consistent growth in circulation in recent years.

In addition to the Minutes of the two Conference and the Minutes for the Woman's Society of Christian Service for the South Carolina Conference, the Advocate received contracts this year for publishing Minutes of the Woman's Society of Christian Service both in the Upper South Carolina Conference and in the Southeastern Jurisdiction, making a total of five sets of Minutes during the year. The aggregate job printing shows an increase over the last year of $633.94. These figures do not take into account the publication of "Methodist Ministers in South Carolina," which involved $1,378.50 and showed a profit of $567.32.

Since the retirement of the debt on the Southern Christian Advocate we have been able to begin the accumulation of a reserve fund against the day when the machinery in the printing plant will have to be replaced or rebuilt.

The board wishes to express its appreciation to our Bishop, our District Superintendents, our Preachers and local leaders for the very fine subscription campaign which began in February of this year. This campaign resulted in the largest paid up live subscription list within many years. During this period five districts in the state went beyond their quota of subscriptions. Many others approached their quota very closely. We believe that our people are becoming more and more Advocate minded and that it is entirely possible, even probable, that with the cooperative effort which has characterized the campaigns in the last two years, the circulation will reach this year the full quota for the two Conferences, approximately 12,500. We commend the custom of those pastors who work their subscription list so as to make them all expire in a single month, thereby finishing up at one time this phase of their ministerial activity.

We respectfully make the following requests:

(1) That the customary campaign for subscriptions be begun as early in February as possible and close as early as the convenience of our pastors will permit; and that every charge and district be encouraged to reach the goal of circulation equal to 8% of membership based upon reports to this Conference.

(2) That the appropriation for the Advocate be not less than that of 1942.

(3) We respectfully request the presiding bishop to appoint Rev. L. D. Hamer, Associate Editor and Assistant Business Manager.

J. R. Unger, Chairman.

J. M. Ariail, Secretary.

We, your Board of Education, request the adoption of this report.

W. ROY PHILLIPS, Chairman.

JOHN M. SHINGLER, Secretary.

COMMISSION ON EVANGELISM

This is the greatest hour for Evangelism that we have seen in our generation. Many of the discouraging elements of today have in them the signs of a coming spiritual revival. We believe that the crisis through which we are passing is the high hour to lift up Christ in His redeeming love and power. The children in our church schools are ready. A host of young people are waiting to be won. Adults in our church schools are awakened. The fields are white unto harvest.

Realizing as we do the need for evangelistic efforts and the real opportunities before the church, your Conference Commission on Evangelism has worked during the year to think through and present to this Conference a program which will challenge the whole Conference.

Your Commission wishes to thank the Editors of our Southern Christian Advocate for giving the edition of March 11, 1943, to the one thought, "Evangelism," and would like to have this repeated this year just prior to Easter.

The results of the work of evangelism during the year have been most gratifying. Our church life has been enriched. Its work has been extended. The spirit of evangelism in churches, church schools, the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and individuals has been greatly quickened. While the fruitage of these efforts and prayers can be fully realized only in the years that lie ahead, yet it is gratifying to know that the reported additions to our church this year by profession of faith number 1548.

In view of the fact that our General Conference, and our Annual Conference have placed evangelism at the forefront of all our endeavors, we therefore, submit the following recommendations:

1. That every minister in our church, within and without the pastorate, be urged to face realistically the tragic chaos and confusion of the world today and the tension in the hearts and minds of people, and persist in pointing the eyes of all to the cross, giving the call to repentance, confession and faith, knowing that Christ alone can meet the needs of individuals, of society, and of the nation.

2. We recommend that Evangelism be given major emphasis and first place in our Conference program for this coming year. We urge every member of our Conference and the members of every local church to unite in making the year 1944 a time for a harvest of souls.

3. We recommend that each district organize a Commission on Evangelism and that each charge organize a like commission. We ask that the District Superintendents appoint three preachers and three laymen to compose the district commission of which the District Superintendent shall be Chairman and each member of the Conference commission in the district be an ex-officio member.

4. We recommend that our Conference use the Home Visitation Campaign under the leadership of Dr. Guy Black, during March 19-April 9, as set up by our General Commission on Evangelism as a time of intensive and extensive efforts in personal evangelism. That every organized agency of the church, and the entire membership be called upon to support wholeheartedly the church in its fundamental evangelistic aim, and in its entire program of activities, by faithful attendance upon worship, by prayer and thank offerings to the service of Him who has called them into fellowship with Himself.

We are truly grateful that we have had with us during this Conference Dr. John Rustin, of Mount Vernon Place church, Washington, D. C. His morning and evening addresses have not only lifted our own souls but have inspired us to greater zeal and purpose.

R. P. TURNER, Chairman.

PAUL C. SCOTT, Secretary.

BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES REPORT NO. 1

Whereas, the suggested Quota plan has worked so admirably for the past two years in providing a sufficient income to meet the expenses of Epworth Orphanage, therefore be it resolved—

1. That the Conference go on record as approving the plan of quotas channelled through the district superintendents to the charges and local churches, and

2. That the Conference request the Bishop and District Superintendents, in cooperation with the authorities of the Orphanage, to continue the above plan in order to insure an adequate support for the orphan children of our church.

Respectfully submitted,

E. S. DUNBAR, Chairman.

J. F. M. HOFFMEYER, Secretary.

BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES REPORT NO. 2

EPWORTH ORPHANAGE REPORT

During the past year we have run into a good many problems in connection with our work at Epworth Orphanage.

The most difficult of these problems has been the securing and keeping of suitable workers. The personnel of our staff has been considerably changed. Some left us to go to better paying jobs. Others retired because of age. We suffered a distinct loss in the resignation of Mrs. A. G. Leverette, who rendered outstanding service for twenty-seven years, most of which time she served as head matron. Mrs. Leverette resigned because of declining health. It has been very hard to secure suitable persons to fill the eleven vacancies which have occurred during the year.

Discipline among the recently admitted children has been more difficult than usual, due in large measure to extreme neglect of these children prior to admission. However, discipline among the older boys and girls has offered few problems.

Another serious problem which has confronted us has been an unusually large number of requests by relatives to have children released to them. In so many cases this request came not because the relatives felt they could do more for the children in question than the orphanage, but for the selfish reason that the children could help the relatives during this time of labor shortage. In many instances we have refused these requests.

We, at Epworth, have felt the effects of the increased cost of living. This has been offset in a right large measure by the practice of the most rigid economy, and a very strenuous effort to produce more of our food stuff on the farm. Our boys, especially the larger ones, have cooperated splendidly to make this the best year we have ever had on the farm. In addition to producing an ample supply of food stuff and feeds, we have been able to sell a surplus of eggs, milk, vegetables and hogs in the amount of $6,892.76. In addition to the ordinary crops, this year we produced enough cane to make 700 gallons of syrup, a good quantity of rice, and several tons of peanuts to be traded for peanut butter.

The health of our children continues good. All preventive measures recommended by health authorities have been taken during the year.

Our school has done excellent work.

Great emphasis has been laid upon the religious life of our children throughout the week, as well as on Sundays. Twenty-seven of the children have joined the church: 24 by vows, 3 by letter. Of the 24 by vows, only 16 had been baptized, even though the average age of the group was ten and a half years.

During the year we have instituted a plan for granting an allowance to the children for work done. The amount varies with the age of the child and the kind of work. In case of poor work, a portion of the allowance is withheld. This plan has worked very satisfactorily.

Because of lack of space in our minutes, we must bring this report to a close. In conclusion we wish to say that the difficulties and handicaps which we have had to endure during the year have been greatly lessened by the most excellent support which our people throughout the state have given. During this year the Methodists of the state have made their largest contribution to Epworth Orphanage—the magnificent sum of $100,191.61. Of this amount $43,423.22 was contributed on Annual Orphanage Day, the balance came from Mother's Day and monthly offerings.

Contributions by Districts follow:

South Carolina Conference—
Charleston - -----	$8,181.21
Florence - -----	10,864.88
Kingstree - -----	5,351.87
Marion - -----	7,085.09
Orangeburg - -----	8,094.37
Sumter - -----	4,878.83
Upper South Carolina Conference—
Anderson - -----	$8,060.16
Columbia - -----	13,021.22
Greenville - -----	9,864.61
Greenwood - -----	8,036.05
Rock Hill - -----	7,522.63
Spartanburg - -----	9,230.69

We are profoundly grateful to our ministers and laymen who have given such loyal support to the work at Epworth Orphanage. We wish to thank in a special manner those congregations which have gone far beyond the quotas assigned. In fact, if it had not been for the contributions in excess of quotas, we would have been in an embarrassing position. As it is, all financial embarrassment in the matter of current expenses has been removed.

Just one more thing we Methodists must look forward to, and that is securing sufficient funds with which to complete the program we have begun of making all of the dormitories on Epworth campus comfortable and attractive for our children.

We are profoundly grateful to our Heavenly Father for His special blessings which have been upon our Home during the year, and we desire to express our sincere appreciation to all of our pastors, church school superintendents, and all others who have given such splendid cooperation in carrying on the work at Epworth Orphanage during the year.

W. D. Roberts, Superintendent.

Respectfully submitted,

E. S. DUNBAR, Chairman.

J. F. M. HOFFMEYER, Secretary.

BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES REPORT NO. 3

The Quarterly Conference of the Estill-Black Swamp charge, of October 17, 1943, at Mt. Carmel church voted to transfer the parsonage, located at Garnett, S. C., to the Board of Hospitals and Homes of the South Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, as a Home to be used for Retired Preachers. This Home has been occupied by Rev. P. K. Rhoad, a retired preacher, who will have the privilege of continuing to live in said Home.

Respectfully submitted,

In behalf of the Quarterly Conference.

J. C. Inabinet, Pastor.

The Board of Hospitals and Homes nominates the Rev. J. F. M. Hoffmeyer as Annual Conference Director of Golden Cross Enrollment of the South Carolina Conference.

The Board nominates J. F. Kinney as trustee of Epworth Orphanage in place of Dr. M. R. Mobley, resigned.

The Board nominates the following trustees of the respective Retired Preachers' Homes:

S. M. Blanton, trustee of Lebanon Home, term to expire in 1946.

Trustees of the Olanta Home, B. C. Fitch, term to expire in 1944, J. D. Moore 1945, J. P. Rush 1946.

Trustees of the Garnett Home, J. King Maner, term to expire in 1944, T. J. Kittles 1945, and J. Eugene Wiggins 1946.

Respectfully submitted,

E. S. DUNBAR, Chairman.

J. F. M. HOFFMEYER, Secretary.

BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES REPORT NO. 4

The Board of Hospitals and Homes received this Conference year from interest $116.23, from Golden Cross Enrollment $789.41, from appropriation of the Annual Conference $144.00, and from gifts for furnishing the Retired Preachers' Homes $16.00.

Disbursements:

For hospitalization	$27.50
Board's expenses	30.00
Insurance premiums	27.47
Premium on Treasurer's Bond	5.00

Repair on Glover Home	5.00
Golden Cross promotion	10.75
Furniture for Glover Home	196.00
Repair and furnishing Olanta Home	656.00

Permanent Fund in the First Federal Savings and Loan Association, Charleston, S. C., $2,426.94.

The parsonage at Garnett, S. C., which was presented to the Conference Board of Hospitals and Homes by the Quarterly Conference of the Estill-Black Swamp charge brings our number of Homes to 5.

The Turbeville-Olanta Quarterly Conference authorized the Trustees of the Nazareth church to transfer the Olanta Home to the Board of Hospitals and Homes of the South Carolina Conference. This leaves only Davis Home in Conway, S. C., trustees to be elected by Quarterly Conference.

The Glover Home has furniture; $196.00 worth from Conference Board and the balance contributed by the women of Walterboro, S. C.

Waterworks have been installed in the Olanta Home, needed repairs made and suitable furniture will be placed after Conference for the occupancy of this Home by Rev. E. F. Scoggins.

The following have been assigned to the respective Homes for another Conference year:

Davis Home, Rev. D. O. Spires.

Garnett Home, Rev. P. K. Rhoad.

Glover Home, Rev. F. E. Hodges.

Olanta Home, Rev. E. F. Scoggins.

Lebanon Home is rented.

Respectfully submitted,

E. S. DUNBAR, Chairman.

J. F. M. HOFFMEYER, Secretary.

BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES REPORT NO. 5

Since the number of Retired Preachers and Widows of Preachers is on the increase, the need for hospitalization funds will be greater; and since only 60 charges in the South Carolina Conference have sent in Golden Cross offerings, therefore,

Be it resolved, That the pastors of the South Carolina Conference, along with the Committee of Hospitals and Homes in each local church, urge the members of the church to make an offering on Golden Cross Sunday, November 28th, for the Conference Hospitalization Fund and send this offering to Rev. J. F. M. Hoffmeyer, Treasurer, Clio, S. C., as early as possible after that date.

Respectfully submitted,

E. S. DUNBAR, Chairman.

J. F. M. HOFFMEYER, Secretary.

BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES REPORT NO. 6

The Board of Hospitals and Homes nominates to the Jurisdictional Conference Dr. L. A. Hartzog, Rev. J. F. M. Hoffmeyer, and Mrs. J. O. Taylor for membership on the Jurisdictional Board of Hospitals and Homes.

Respectfully submitted,
E. S. DUNBAR, Chairman.
J. F. M. HOFFMEYER, Secretary.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

A number of the usual functions of the Board were not pressed this year because of prevailing conditions. It is gratifying to report, however, that Layman's Day was more generally observed than ever before. Reports from all parts of the Conference indicate that many churches observed special Layman's Day programs in a most interesting way.

We again call attention to the unique place this day holds among Protestant churches, and urge our District Superintendents, Pastors and Laymen to begin to plan early to make Layman's Day in 1944 one of the really important days on our Church's Calendar. The day is February 20th, and the subject, a most timely one, "The Church At Its Best." If the Church is to measure up to the opportunities and responsibilities of these tragic days, she must be at her best. We hope Layman's Day will be suitably observed in every church in the Conference.

The Southern Christian Advocate kindly gave the Lay Program a special edition during the year. It was sponsored by our Board jointly with the Board of the Upper South Carolina Conference. We heard many favorable comments upon this edition, not only by our local readers, but from the National Headquarters.

We believe that many phases of the Church's work, promoted by the Board of Lay Activities, are coming more and more to have a fixed place in the program of the local church. Unquestionably the church is making steady advances along some of these important lines.

We nominate Dr. J. Caldwell Guilds Conference Lay Leader.

J. CALDWELL GUILDS, President.
JAMES F. RISHER, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION REPORT NO. 1

Your Board of Missions and Church Extension is gratified by the results of special effort to bring the Methodist Church to assume more seriously the responsibility of giving the benefits of the gospel to a distraught world.

The charges of the Conference have accepted on the whole larger amounts for the benevolent work of the Church.

A most encouraging sign of progress is seen in the fact that several churches and societies have assumed support of special missions.

There is no part of the church in South Carolina that has not been inspired by the fine optimism and liberal advance in the support of missions found in the record of the Spartanburg District of the Upper South Carolina Conference this year. This should be the ultimate goal of every church in our Conference.

The Missionary Institutes held in each of the Districts last December were of unusual interest. The missionary course offered in the Pastors' School and led by Bishop Edwin F Lee stands out as one of the advances in our promotional plans.

Even the horrors of a global war have served the interests of a world-wide conception of the Kingdom, and inspired many and earnest appeals to apply the principles of Christian brotherhood.

Your Board urges that special emphasis be placed this year upon the following efforts:

1. The preaching of more Missionary sermons in every church.
2. The increased use of leaflets carrying missionary information and inspiration. The distribution of missionary literature should be a part of the program for every World Service Sunday.

3. To secure the support of special missions on the part of a larger number of our churches.

4. To increase the number of churches that will accept the amount apportioned for general and conference Benevolences as a minimum goal.

5. Wider use of the Conference stereopticon machine in showing pictures of our work in mission fields.

6. Maintaining continuous touch with the young men and women of our churches who are in the armed forces of our country. No effort will pay larger spiritual dividends today and tomorrow.

S. O. Cantey, Conference Missionary Secretary.

E. K. GARRISON, President.

J. CARLISLE SMILEY, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION REPORT NO. 2

The Board of Missions and Church Extension has selected Rev. C. B. Burns to continue the special ministry to the Marines at Parris Island. His salary has been fixed at $1200 a year plus an allotment of $300 a year for house rent.

We respectfully request each district superintendent to raise $150 from the charges of his district to support the Parris Island Special as in former years. A request has been sent to the Board of Missions and Church Extension of the Upper South Carolina Conference to raise a similar amount from each of its districts.

E. K. GARRISON, President.

J. CARLISLE SMILEY, Secretary.

Bethlehem Church -----	150.00
Swallow Savannah Church (Allendale) -----	500.00
Wampee Church -----	300.00
St. Stephen Church (loan) -----	500.00

Other applications carried over for further consideration.

The following applications to the General Board have been approved:

Loan to this Conference Board -----	$500.00
Bethsaida Church (donation) -----	800.00
Swallow Savannah Church (donation) -----	750.00
Hood's Chapel Church (donation) -----	250.00
Wampee Church (donation) -----	500.00

Because funds received for donations are so small, we are forced to announce that no new applications to this Conference Board will be considered before next Annual Conference.

J. CARLISLE SMILEY, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION REPORT NO. 9

The Board of Missions and Church Extension nominates

Rev. S. O. Cantey as Conference Missionary Secretary.

E. K. GARRISON, President.
J. CARLISLE SMILEY, Secretary.

C. P. A. AUDIT BOARD OF MISSIONS

Board of Missions, South Carolina Conference,

C/o Mr. W. E. Ivey, Treasurer,
Charleston, South Carolina.

Gentlemen:

(1) I have made an examination of the records of W. E. Ivey, Treasurer Board of Missions, South Carolina Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church, for the period beginning November 16, 1942, and ending November 15, 1943, both dates inclusive.

(2) My findings are presented in this letter of transmittal and in the following accompanying Exhibits and Schedules in the order named:

Exhibit A—Consolidated Mission Funds Summary

Exhibit B—Condensed Analysis Mission General Fund (Commercial ac.)

Schedule B-1—Disbursements General Fund to Mission Pastors

Schedule B-2—Miscellaneous Disbursements General Fund

Exhibit C—Mission Savings Fund

Exhibit D—Parris Island Fund

(3) The scope of the audit embraced examination of cancelled checks; reconciliation of bank statements, which, in the case of the Commercial ac., was a mid-month requested statement; direct confirmation of Savings acs.; and a letter to Rev. J. Dempsey Griffin, Conference Treasurer, reporting the total of his remittances credited on Mr. Ivey's books and requesting a reply only in the event of a difference. The Disbursements included a premium for a fidelity bond presumably covering the Treasurer, but this bond was not examined. No direct confirmation was made of the receipts from the various churches for the account of the Parris Island fund.

(4) This is to certify that, in my opinion, W. E. Ivey, as Treasurer of the South Carolina Conference Board of Missions, has properly accounted for all Mission funds listed in Exhibit A, and the Parris Island Fund, Exhibit D, for the period under review, subject to qualifications set forth in the foregoing comments and the several subsequent Exhibits and Schedules.

Respectfully submitted,

BRADFORD E. ANDERSON,

Certified Public Accountant.

S. D. NEWELL, Secretary.

REPORT OF STANDING RULES COMMITTEE

Your Committee on Standing Rules has considered the resolution referred to it, proposing that Standing Rule, Section P, no. 1, entitled, "Support of District Superintendents," be deleted. This rule reads as follows: "In accordance with optional provisions of Paragraphs 840 and 841 in the Discipline, the support of the District Superintendents shall be estimated and distributed by the District Stewards as set forth in Paragraph 841."

The Committee recommends concurrence.

ALBERT D. BETTS, Chairman.
W. ROY PHILLIPS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

Your Board has spent much time in dealing with the interests committed to its care, and now submits the following report:

1. The last session of our South Carolina Legislature passed a law banning the sale of beer and wine between midnight Saturday and sunrise on Monday morning, effective July 1st. In three months following that date the sale of alcoholic beverages dropped over $3,000,000, a decrease which we hope will continue. Over one half of this cut was in beer sales. We call for the continued enforcement of this new law.

2. Again we insist that the voice of the people be obeyed as expressed in the 1940 Referendum when 190,000 citizens (59,000 majority) called for the outlawing of the sale of all alcoholic beverages in our state. Until our Legislature heeds that mandate, there is a fundamental issue of democracy at stake: Shall the people rule, or will the liquor interests be permitted to dominate the politics of our commonwealth?

3. The stranglehold which the liquor traffic has upon our public affairs seems to be in the control of the dominant party organization. This is due to the failure of our good citizens to attend their club meetings in the 1,500 precincts of this state. The next biennial meeting of these clubs will be held the last week of next April, and we urge that every good man and woman of voting age attend his or her club meeting, and there vote for the best persons to run the party organization. Then qualify for and vote in the primary and general elections. This is a sacred duty for which God holds us responsible.

4. We recommend January 23-30, 1944, as the date for the annual observance of Temperance week in our Conference, and we call upon all of our pastors and people to respond to this opportunity to promote the great Temperance cause. An increasing number of our churches are observing this week each year with gratifying results. Literature and posters may be ordered without cost from Rev. Albert D. Betts, Orangeburg, S. C. We also recommend that an offering for the work of the Federated Forces for Temperance and Law Enforcement be taken at that time in all of our local churches.

4. It has been a real privilege to have with us at this Conference

Miss Bertha Rachel Palmer of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Evanston, Ill. In addition to her splendid message to the Conference her presence and counsel in the Board have been most helpful and constructive.

5. We nominate Mrs. J. H. Harvey and Rev. E. A. Wilkes as our representatives on the South Carolina Council of Alcohol Education. We have appropriated $150 to this official body in which our Conference participates. We also furnished a $50 scholarship to the Summer School last June at Newberry College for Alcohol Education, the course being taught by Prof. A. M. Taylor, Whitney, S. C., who is also executive secretary of the Council on Alcohol Education.

6. We sent Rev. E. A. Wilkes to Lake Junaluska last summer to represent us at the Conference on Narcotic Education called by Bishop Purcell, and he gave us a very interesting report of that two-day session last August.

7. The Alcohol Education Council is expanding its program and will need larger financial support from the supporting agencies. In view of its vitally important educational program we are asking for a larger share in the Conference funds next year so we can give more effective co-operation.

8. In addition to the S. C. Council on Alcohol Education, we commend to our people for their hearty co-operation and support the following agencies in our State:

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Mrs. J. L. Mims, President, Edgefield, S. C.

The South Carolina Federated Forces for Temperance and Law Enforcement, Rev. F. C. McConnell, D. D., President, Anderson, S. C., and Rev. Albert D. Betts, Executive Secretary, Orangeburg, S. C.

We recommend that petitions, S 860 and H. R. 2082 forms which are provided and are available be taken home and circulated by the ministers and sent to Hon. Joseph R. Bryson, Member of Congress.

We nominate Rev. A. D. Betts, Mrs. J. H. Harvey and W. W. Smoak as members of our Jurisdictional Board of Temperance.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLTON DURANT, President.
B. C. GLEATON, Secretary.

REPORT OF WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

The work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service has gone forward during the last year in spite of the difficulties which had to be faced in these war times. Much has been done but not until we have a Woman's Society of Christian Service functioning in every local church will we begin to approach our goal.

Eleven new societies have been organized during the past year. Questionnaires have been sent to the pastors of every unorganized church in the conference. With the cooperation of these local pastors and the district superintendents we hope quite a number of these churches will soon be organized.

Our Conference came third in the number of Jurisdiction classes held and one of seven in the Jurisdiction to have an increase in study classes. The Latin American Study for all age groups was of outstanding interest and value.

Interest in the unified plan for the missionary education of Methodist Youth has been manifested throughout our conference. More and more young people and leaders are studying the plan and attempting to integrate it into their program. Many local societies made it possible for a delegate from the Youth Division in the local church to attend the Young People's Assembly at Columbia College.

Our students and men in service have not been overlooked. Many helpful contacts have been made with students. "Strength for Service to God and Country," Bibles, Testaments, "The Upper Room," church periodicals, and other fine literature have been sent our men in service by the societies.

There has been a marked increase in subscriptions to the World Outlook and The Methodist Woman. This literature undergirds all our work. Eighty-six subscriptions of the World Outlook have been placed in the USO centers in South Carolina.

We have overpaid our pledge of $24,500 for 1942 and have increased it $500 for 1943. We have also raised $2,210.75 for the Emergency gift. This amount being over and above our pledge.

We need to see this organization as a part of a great spiritual movement for bringing the kingdom of God on earth. If the organization is to go forward with any certainty, if it is to make a vital contribution to the new age and to the building of the Kingdom, a greater missionary passion on the part of every individual member is a first requisite, right now.

To do this will involve unselfishness, personal surrender and sacrifice above and beyond anything we have yet experienced. It means for each of us an increased faith in the cause and a new quality of holy daring that will not falter in the face of difficult or seemingly impossible situations. It means achievement wrought out in sacrifice; a new type of courage; it means giving of ourselves and our substance; it means entering vicariously into the needs of humanity. Jesus took it upon himself, and so must we, if we are to have "A New World Wherein Dwelleth Righteousness."

MEMOIRS 1943

RHODUM RHETT DOYLE

Rev. Rhodum Rhett Doyle was born near Clemson College, S. C., November 17, 1879. He was the son of William A. and Mrs. Anna Patterson Doyle.

As a youth he was educated in the public schools of his native community. His education was a growing process. He loved books and continued to read and study throughout his entire career.

Early in life Brother Doyle felt the call to preach, but hesitated for some time before responding to this call. When in his twenty-fourth year, he was licensed to preach by the Greenville District Conference. The following year, 1905, he was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference. The next year Brother Doyle was appointed to Bethel in Greenville. During the following years he served Parksville, Walhalla Circuit, Centenary, and Norway. For some time he served as Assistant Editor of the Southern Christian Advocate, later returning to the pastorate. He then served Kershaw, and Norway from which latter charge he superannuated at the Annual Conference in the fall of 1924. Following his superannuation he with his wife, Mrs. Susie Sharp Doyle, resided in the Norway community till her death which occurred November 21, 1926. Mrs. Doyle was buried near the town of Norway.

Before entering the ministry Brother Doyle filled most of the official positions in his local church. This experience gave him a knowledge of the work of his church and a sympathetic understanding of the place of the laymen in the church. Due no doubt to his experience, we have an explanation of the readiness with which the laymen of his charges followed his leadership seldom found with the less experienced pastor.

He was a preacher who understood the needs of his people. In his preaching he presented Christ as the one source who could supply their needs. Many were led to Christ under the influence of his preaching. He was untrained in the Schools of Theology yet he had a wide knowledge of Christian Doctrine and most of his sermons were discourses of a doctrinal nature.

Brother Doyle loved newspaper work, and from his experience in this field he became a trained and clear thinker, who presented the gospel in a lucid and forceful manner.

The home of Brother Doyle was not blessed with children. However, he carried a deep affection for children and young people which was reciprocated by large groups who attended his services and came into the church under the influence of his preaching.

As a pastor he was untiring. He literally followed the rule of visiting from house to house. His name was familiar in homes of every stratum of society. He knew, and loved, people regardless of their condition. By many he was called Pastor Rhett. What higher tribute could have been paid him?

On December 21, 1942, the passing of this man of God took place at the home of Dr. C. A. Mitchell near Clemson College where he was then residing. The funeral services were conducted December 22, 1942, at Shiloh Baptist church by Rev. C. B. Landreth of the Baptist Church, Rev. H. A. Whitten of Westminster and Rev. T. D. George of Seneca. His body was laid to rest in the Shiloh cemetery beside his father and mother.

The deep affection in which Brother Doyle was held was attested by the beautiful floral offering, and by the presence of the large number of friends and former parishioners who attended the funeral.

E. K. GARRISON.

JOHN WESLEY HUDSON 1943

The Rev. John Wesley Hudson died at his home in Camden, S. C., on March 3, 1943, at the ripe age of seventy-five. The funeral services were held at Concord church, Lee County, conducted by the writer, assisted by the Revs. J. L. Miller, F. L. Frazier, Henry F. Collins, and K. S. Carmichael. Interment was in the church cemetery. But John Hudson is not dead. His spirit goes soaring on through celestial spaces, to live as he lived, to love as he loved, to labor as he labored, a life that can only issue in a glorious immortality. For him there must be a heaven of ceaseless activity, where he can be forever on the march with the forces of his Christ.

He did not have the advantage of a college education, but he was a great reader of good books, and did most of his reading in his Bible.

It was the writer's privilege to work with and under Brother Hudson for thirty-one years in the South Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church. Always Brother Hudson was a very pleasant man to work with. Many days I have spent in his home, and often he talked about those things which are of the greatest concern to the people, the things of God and our relations to Him. He believed profoundly in Christianity, and the power of God to transform men and women. To hear him pray was to be convinced of his great faith in Him who answers prayer. His preaching was with deep earnestness and simplicity.

Brother Hudson served as President of the Methodist Protestant Conference in South Carolina for ten years. He was faithful in the discharge of his duties, and was loved by all. During his active ministry he served as pastor of Dunn's Chapel, Richland Charge, Lamar, Concord, Willow Creek, Bethsaida and Red Hill. Regularly he brought a good report to Conference.

The union of American Methodism in 1939 brought him into this Conference as a retired minister of The Methodist Church.

He was twice married, his first wife dying many years ago, leaving two children. His second wife was Miss Hattie Broch of Florence County, S. C., who with several children survives. Born three score and fifteen years ago in Darlington County of this state, our sainted brother has entered the Homeland of the soul to await the dawn of the Resurrection Morn.

IRVIN FRYE.

JAMES HUBERT NOLAND

James Hubert Noland, son of John C. and Sarah Sassard Noland, was born at Charleston, S. C., December 18, 1866, and died September 27, 1943. Funeral services were held in the College Place church, conducted by Bishop W. T. Watkins, Rev. J. Ross Johnson, Rev. Paul Whitaker and Rev. S. W. Henry; and his body rests in the Elmwood cemetery in the city of Columbia, S. C.

His educational advantages were good, he having attended the Bennett School of Charleston, the Charleston High School and the South Carolina Military College (The Citadel), from which he graduated with the B. S. Degree. He also did graduate work at the Columbia, S. C., Presbyterian Theological Seminary.

Brother Noland was licensed to preach at Anderson, S. C., in 1889. In December, 1890, he with five others, including the writer of this sketch, was admitted into the South Carolina Annual Conference on trial. He was ordained Deacon in 1892 and Elder in 1894. Except for one year, 1893, when he served in the Montana Conference, his fifty-two years of faithful and fruitful ministry was rendered within the South Carolina Conference. He served with marked efficiency in varied activities in his church. As a faithful pastor and true preacher of the Gospel he gladly went wherever sent as a messenger for his Lord and Saviour. His appointments were as follows: Monticello, 1891; Aiken, 1892; Wallace, Idaho, 1893; York, S. C., 1894; Blackville, 1895; Gourdin, 1896-97; Langley, 1898-99; North Marlboro, 1900; Aiken Institute, 1901-02; Van Wyck, 1903; Blackstock, 1904-06; Pinewood, 1907-08; Kershaw, 1909-10; Starr, 1911; Beaufort, 1912-15; Summerville, 1916-17; Timmons-ville-Pisgah, 1918-19; Little Rock, 1920; Business Manager Southern Christian Advocate, 1921-28; Eutawville, 1929; Treasurer of our Conference, 1929-43. In fact, he was treasurer of the Conference from 1916 until just before his death. He also was statistical secretary of the Montana Conference the year he served there, 1893, and assistant secretary of our Conference, 1897-1915; treasurer of the Board of Finance, 1914-30, 1934-38; Commission on Budget, 1930-34.

On April 4, 1894, he was married to Miss Pattie Parker, of Aiken, S. C., who died November 20, 1911. His second marriage was to Miss Alice Campbell, of Ocala, Fla., October 31, 1918. To this union were born Alice Louise (deceased) and J. Hubert, now in the service of his country.

I first knew Hubert Noland in 1890. In July of that year Rev. B. D. Lucas gave up his work on the West Wateree circuit to go as a missionary to China. Brother Noland was sent to take his place on that circuit, but in September he decided to return to Columbia and pursue further his theological studies, and I was sent to finish out the work until conference. It was at the Annual Conference of that year, 1890, at Anderson, S. C., we first met, to offer ourselves for admission on trial. From that time on, for fifty-two years, we were not only classmates in the conference but the closest of friends, beloved.

Hubert Noland was in the truest sense a courteous, polite Christian gentleman. He was a man of strong convictions with courage to stand, alone, if need be, for what he believed to be right. He moved with ease and dignity in all classes of society. He was full of wit and humor, always seeing the human side of things.

His home was ideal; a devoted husband and loving father. He enjoyed his home life, taking great interest and delight in all domestic affairs, including flowers, garden and poultry.

He is gone from us, yes, one of our best and most useful men, and we shall miss him, but, by the same grace that was sufficient for him, we shall see him again.

D. A. PHILLIPS.

WESLEY JAMES SNYDER SC, 1903, p. 103

It is singularly fitting that this memorial service should be held at the church in which the funeral services of the subject of this memoir were conducted two weeks previously.

Wesley James Snyder, son of J. C. and Mrs. Mary E. Munson Snyder, was born at Parris Island, S. C., December 3, 1873. On October 13, 1943, after a brief illness, he peacefully passed away at Tuomey hospital in Sumter. The funeral services were held at Broad Street church, October 15, 1943. Ministers participating were the writer, Rev. J. Ross Johnson, Rev. Welborne Summers, and Rev. Henry F. Collins. Interment was in the Sumter cemetery.

Brother Snyder was educated in the public schools of Beaufort county, Wofford Fitting School, and Wofford College, graduating from the latter in 1894 with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Of studious habits, he continued to learn and kept abreast with the best thought of the day through wide and selective reading. He was especially interested in our educational institutions; serving for a time as Agent for Lander College, and as associate headmaster of Carlisle School at Bamberg.

From childhood, Brother Snyder was religiously inclined. He felt called to the ministry at an early age, and was licensed to exhort in 1888, and the following year was licensed to preach. He was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference in 1894, ordained a deacon in 1895, and an elder in 1899.

He served the following appointments: Wateree Ct., 1895; Jordan, 1896; Antreville, 1897-98; Cherokee Ct., 1899-1900; Clifton, 1901-03; Granby, Columbia, 1904-05; Aiken, 1906-08; West End, Anderson, 1909-10; Bainwell, 1911-14. Upon the division of the Conference in 1914, he served in the Upper South Carolina Conference at Greer, 1915-16; Batesburg, 1917-19; Agent Lander College, 1920; Associate Headmaster Carlisle School, Bamberg, 1921. In 1921 he was transferred to the South Carolina Conference, and served McColl, 1922-24; Duncan Memorial, Georgetown, 1925-28; Clio, 1929; Spring Street, Charleston, 1930-33; Conway, 1934-35. Following a serious illness in 1935 while pastor at Conway, he was granted Sabbatical leave by the Conference, that through complete rest he would obtain restored health. The following years, 1937-38, he sustained the Superannuate relation. In July 1938, he returned to active duty and finished the year at Kershaw. Continuing, he served the Jordan charge in 1939; and McClellanville, 1940-41. At the session of the Conference in 1941, he was granted the Retired relation. From that time until his death he made his home in Sumter.

Brother Snyder was married to Miss Callie Ellis, June 18, 1895, who died September 23, 1896. His second marriage, March 10, 1897, was to Miss Bessie Davis, who died July 4, 1898. To this union one child was born, who is now Mrs. Sarah Boswell of Manning. On September 14, 1899, he was married to Miss Mattie M. Scott, who through the years walked with him as companion and helper, and who, with devotion and untiring care, ministered to him during the years of impaired health. Their children are: Harry Snyder of Marion, Frank S. Snyder of Winston-Salem, N. C., and Miss Martha Snyder and Dr. W. James Snyder, Jr., both of Sumter.

Throughout his ministry, Brother Snyder performed his duties both with care and accuracy. Because of these qualities he was elected to serve as Secretary of the Upper South Carolina Conference from 1916 to 1919; and Assistant Secretary of the South Carolina Conference from 1924 to 1935.

A resolute will was one of the fine qualities which characterized his life and ministry. He was satisfied only when the utmost effort had been made to secure the largest success of any undertaking. When overcome by illness in 1935, and for a time it was feared that he could not survive, his strong body responded to treatment and care, resulting in a remarkable recovery. His continued, steady improvement, however, was largely the result of his will to live.

He possessed the fine combination of a faithful pastor and a gifted preacher. Careful to minister in the homes of his congregations, he also maintained a relatively high standard in his ministry from the pulpit.

Brother Snyder never lost the zest of life or the joy of service. During his latter days he neglected no opportunity to serve, and in each service gave the full measure of devotion. While he was constantly employed in various capacities in the churches of Sumter, his ministry reached farther than the local community. His audience was multiplied when he regularly took his turn in conducting services over the local broadcasting station. Immediately preceding his last illness, all preparations had been made for such a service which would have been held the following week. But he was not permitted to meet this appointment. Instead, he was permitted, we have no doubt, from some vantage point in glory, to hear a young lady sing the song he had selected for her to sing in the service over the air, as it was used in the service conducted for him, in the presence of a large assembly of relatives and friends

W. ROY PHILLIPS.

ELBERT LIVINGSTON MCCOY ¹⁹⁴³

Elbert Livingston McCoy, son of Edwin Ruthven McCoy and Mrs. Harriet Jane McCammon McCoy, was born at Magnet Cove, Hot Springs County, Arkansas, April 10, 1876; and died at his home in Florence, S. C., October 19, 1943.

His early educational training was in the village schools and Amity Academy at Amity, Arkansas. He continued in school at Hendrix College, Conway, Arkansas, and Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee. Following his college training, he taught school for six years in Arkansas and Texas.

With this experience of a student in schools and colleges and then of a teacher of other students, he was well prepared to begin his life service. He was licensed to preach at Arkadelphia, Arkansas, in June, 1904. For financial reasons, he was under the necessity of laboring in other fields for five years before being admitted to the South Carolina Annual Conference in December, 1909. He was ordained a deacon by Bishop John C. Kilgo at Bennettsville in 1911, and an elder by Bishop A. W. Wilson in Rock Hill in 1913. His itinerant ministry was spent in an unusually acceptable manner on the following charges: Santuc Circuit, Duncan Circuit, Conway, McColl, Florence, Sumter District, Bennettsville, Orangeburg, Charleston District, Marion, and Florence District. He went to his reward above just eight days before the completion of a six-year term on the Florence District.

He was honored by his conference in his election to membership in the General Conference at Jackson, Mississippi, in 1934, at Montgomery, Alabama, in 1938, the Uniting Conference at Kansas City, Mo., in 1939, and the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference at Asheville, North Carolina, in 1940. He served during these years on several of the important boards of the Conference, and was for a number of years a trustee of Columbia College. At the time of his death, he was a member of the Board of Managers of the Southern Christian Advocate.

Such a record as this could be made only by a man of extraordinary ability, fine poise, ceaseless energy, true courage and, above all, an enduring faith in God and the utmost devotion to Truth. He was always fearless in standing squarely for what he thought was right; and yet he respected the views of others and held the confidence of those who disagreed with him. This quality of life made him an able leader and administrator in the affairs of the church. He loved to read good literature and to study systematically; and, with his clear thinking and earnest spirit, his preaching and teaching were always inspiring and helpful.

Growing up in a Christian home and happy in his own Christian home always, the success of his public life was inevitably the expression of a whole and noble Christian life.

On June 13, 1906, he was married to Miss Mary Olive Campbell of Arkadelphia, Arkansas. Of this union, there are three children: Allene (Mrs. E. E. Higgins), Helen (Mrs. Sam G. Williams), and Edwin Richard, M. D. This first wife died in October, 1939, having lived out a happy span of useful years. On December 21, 1940, he was married to Miss Mary Alice Lemmon of Lynchburg, South Carolina, who was most helpful to him in his work, and beautifully devoted in her loving attention during his long illness.

His funeral was held at Central church in Florence on October 21, with Bishop W. T. Watkins, Rev. J. E. Clark, Rev. J. T. Peeler and Rev. S. O. Cantey officiating. He was buried in Magnolia cemetery at Charleston on the same day, with Rev. T. G. Herbert, D. D., and Rev. S. O. Cantey conducting the last rites.

During the service in the church at Florence, Rev. J. E. Clark read the following lines, which express beautifully a true estimate of his life:

"Crowned Son of God! Behold, Thy friend
Departs from us, to bide with Thee,
Trusting Thy word, that to the end
Where'er Thou art, Thine own shall be.

"And by Thy promise sure, we know
That he on whom we leaned in love
Shall stand, as in Thy Church below,
A pillar, in Thy Church above!

"A pillar, always in its place,
Steadfast and strong, and true of line,
Firm-founded in Thy changeless grace,
High-towering to Thy full design!

"Of these Thy pillars, Thou didst say
O Christ, Thou wouldst write on them
The name of God, to shine always,
And of His New Jerusalem."

SAMUEL O. CANTEY.

OUR DEAD

Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them. Rev. 14:13.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The eighty-eighth session of the South Carolina Historical Society convened in Trinity Methodist church, Sumter, S. C., on Thursday afternoon, October 28, 1943, at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. L. D. Hamer, first vice-president, was in the chair. After a brief worship service Rev. M. L. Banks, our president, addressed the Society on the subject, "Wofford College and the South Carolina Conference (Undisturbed Co-operation Throughout 89 Years)."

After this splendid address the Society gave a standing vote of thanks to Mr. Bank for his services.

The minutes of the 1942 session of the Society were read and approved. The treasurer's report was received as information. A motion to print the address of Mr. Banks was adopted and the dues were increased to fifty cents for this year.

Gifts were received to be sent to Wofford College archives. The Society was adjourned with the benediction.

L. D. HAMER, 1st Vice-President.
THOMAS M. GODBOLD, Secretary.

HISTORICAL ADDRESS

WOFFORD COLLEGE AND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

(Undisturbed Co-operation Throughout Eighty-nine Years)

Rev. M. L. Banks ('94)

Sources consulted: Dr. Shipp's "History of Methodism in South Carolina"; the Minutes of the Conference, together with conversations and correspondence with well-informed members of both Faculty and Board of Trustees.

The key-word of this discussion will be "Co-operation," and the subject will be considered in its most logical aspects.

1. Co-operation in the Original Project

Wofford College was the gift to the Conference of one who had been a traveling Methodist preacher, but who, at the time of the notable bequest, had retired to the local ranks. The bond that was to exist between the College and the Conference was cemented and sanctified in the spirit of this true minister of the Gospel and faithful steward of the talents committed to his care. It is in the carrying out of Benjamin Wofford's will and under the inspiration of his consecrated liberality that Wofford College has written the history in Christian Education so well known to the world. It is worthy of record just here that, in planning for the direction of his benefaction to which he should devote the bulk of his fortune, Mr. Wofford had the wise counsel of an honored member of the South Carolina Conference, Rev. H. A. C. Walker. Mr. Walker tactfully and earnestly advised the course finally taken. Thus the best traditions and ideals of Methodism realized an issue of priceless value to the Church and to the world in the determination of two Methodist preachers to establish the foundation of a Christian college.

In the selection of the board of trustees, the prescription of their duties and the direction and distribution of funds, the most serious care was exercised. Thirteen men were named under the will as trustees, viz: Reverend W. M. Wightman, H. Bass, W. A. Gamewell, J. H. Wheeler, W. Barringer, H. A. C. Walker, John Porter, David Derrick, Major Harvey Wofford, H. H. Thompson, Joseph W. Tucker, Clough Beard and Dr. Benjamin Wofford. It was provided that the trustees "should be appointed once in every two years by the Conference and that they should render an annual report to the Conference of all money collected and expended." The sum of fifty thousand dollars was to be applied to the purchase of grounds and the erection of an administration building and four professors' houses. The remaining fifty thousand dollars would be vested in a permanent endowment. This was done. But before the amount for endowment had actually been turned over to the trustees by the executors of the will, the Conference, at its session in 1854, had directed that ten thousand dollars of its Centenary fund be added to the endowment (the actual amount turned over was $11,000) making the total endowment at the beginning $61,000. Also, in the same resolution, the President of the college had been requested to travel during the ensuing year to bring the endowment of the college up to $120,000. Thus early did the Conference begin that co-operation which has continued unbroken throughout the eighty-nine years. To this amount was added the splendid gift of $5,000 by Mr. Geo. W. Williams, Sr., the interest of which was to be used in the education of young men looking to the ministry.

2. Support

In November, 1863, the President of Wofford College, Dr. A. M. Shipp, entered upon the work of increasing the endowment and continued his labors into the spring of 1864. The aggregate amount raised in cash and subscriptions largely exceeded the minimum of $200,000 which the Board of Trustees "had adjudged necessary and had resolved to raise."

This endowment, however, was nearly all lost by reason of conditions during and subsequent to the war.

The first regular assessment ordered by the Conference for the support of the College was at the session of 1866 and was for $7,000. In 1869 this was increased to $8,000. However, so far as the records show, the usual amount realized annually on this generous assessment was only $1,500.

At some time during the critical period immediately subsequent to the war the preachers of the Conference raised the sum of $15,000 to be set aside and the interest used for the tuition of preachers' sons. In recognition of this fact and the fact that the preachers of the conference act as agents for the college and collect the assessments ordered by the Conference for its support, preachers' sons have never been charged tuition. So this custom is not by way of a charity, but in recognition of services rendered.

Wofford was the only college in the State whose doors were not closed during the war between the States. This was accomplished through the gifts of the preachers, the generous response to their appeals to an impoverished people, and the self-sacrificing spirit of a noble faculty, who served on small salaries for many years after the war. As a matter of fact, no professor ever received his full salary until the year 1889.

The following paragraph from resolutions of the Board of Trustees appears in the Minutes of 1869: "Resolved, that as a board, we are more than ever convinced of the necessity of sustaining Wofford College, and earnestly urge each member of the Conference to increased effort in raising the appropriations for this object."

All through the years the Conference has been ready to respond to any call made by the trustees, and definite efforts have been almost continuous. The history of all these movements is too lengthy to be recorded here, but the names of the men who have served as agents will testify to the thoroughness of the work. The following are the names of the agents from the beginning: C. S. Walker, H. H. DuRant, A. M. Shipp, W. P. Mouzon, H. A. C. Walker, W. W.

Duncan, A. Coke Smith, John C. Kilgo, C. B. Smith, R. A. Child, W. I. Herbert and F. H. Shuler. To these must be added the names of John C. Roper and G. E. Edwards, who served as secretaries of the Christian Education Movement for the Upper South Carolina Conference and the South Carolina Conference, respectively.

3. Administration

The affairs of the college are administered by a board of trustees nominated by the Board of Education and elected by the Conference (this, since the division in 1914, by the two conferences jointly). Their work is reviewed by the Boards of Education annually and a report thereon is rendered to the Conference for their action.

The strictest economy has always been exercised in handling the affairs of the college. With the exception of the disaster of the war between the States, already referred to, none of the resources of the college has ever suffered loss, and it has been kept out of debt through all the years. No part of the endowment is encumbered with any restrictions interfering with its free use for the institution nor endangering its permanent security.

At the session of the South Carolina Conference in 1914, when the division was effected, a Commission on the Transfer of Property was appointed, consisting of the following: H. B. Carlisle, J. A. McCullough, C. C. Featherstone, Charlton DuRant, B. Hart Moss and E. C. Dennis. This Commission did its work thoroughly and faithfully and made its report to the ensuing Conference. Under the amended charter Wofford College, as well as the other institutions of the Church, became the joint property of the two conferences with a board of trustees, consisting of seven from the Upper South Carolina Conference and six from the South Carolina Conference: The trustees for 1941-42 are as follows: South Carolina Conference—J. Emerson Ford, W. D. Gleaton, E. K. Garrison, Hugo S. Sims, W. F. Stackhouse, Marvin W. Adams; Upper South Carolina Conference—J. R. T. Major, R. F. Morris, G. C. Leonard, John A. Law, H. B. Carlisle, A. M. Chreitzberg, John B. Humbert.

The three units in administration, the Conference, the Trustees and the Faculty, have always worked together in fullest harmony. One trustee, speaking of the joint work of Trustees and Faculty, testifies: "I have never seen any disposition to do other than what was proper toward the Conference; its controlling authority was always recognized and willingly. There was and is a keen sense of the moral obligation to look after this college as a part of the Methodist Church. On the other hand, the Conference has been willing to trust this work and has never, so far as I know, hindered or obstructed or dictated the work."

4. Curriculum

As to curriculum, the Conference has been willing to trust the President and faculty, recognizing them as fully competent to take care of this part of the work. In the beginning, however, we have a bit of interesting history, showing that the Conference was careful of this most important concern: "The trustees held their first meeting to organize under the charter at Newberry C. H. November 24, 1853, when these resolutions were adopted: 'Resolved, that the faculty of the college consist of a President, who shall be Professor of Moral and Mental Science, a Professor of English Literature, a Professor of the Latin and Greek Languages, a Professor of Mathematics and a Professor of Natural Science. The Rev. W. M. Wightman, D. D., was at the same time elected President, The Reverend Albert M. Shipp, A. M., Professor of English Literature, David Duncan, A. M., Professor of Ancient Languages, Jas. H. Carlisle, A. M., Professor of Mathematics, and Warren DuPre, A. M., Professor of Natural Science.'" Again we read, "A Professorship of History and Biblical Literature was created 4th of July 1866, and the Reverend A. H. Lester, A. M., was elected to fill the new chair. At the same time a Divinity School was established and placed under the supervision of Rev. A. M. Shipp, D. D., Reverend Whitefoord Smith, D. D., and Reverend A. H. Lester, A. M." And now we gratefully bear record that no question has ever arisen concerning erroneous or hurtful teachings in Wofford College.

5. Presidents

Wofford College has had five presidents, two preachers and three laymen, as follows: 1854-1859, Rev. Wm. M. Wightman, D. D. (afterwards Bishop); 1859-1875, Rev. Albert M. Shipp, D. D.; 1875-1902, Dr. Jas. H. Carlisle; 1902-1942, Dr. Henry Nelson Snyder; 1942-, Dr. Walter K. Greene. Dr. Wightman, a winsome personality, cultured and learned, an orator of great renown, made an ideal head of the newly-established institution. Dr. Shipp, presiding during the trying years of the war, proved himself the very man needed to guide the affairs of the College safely through those days and the period immediately following.

Dr. Jas. H. Carlisle whose towering personality placed him, in the opinion of many, beside that of Arnold of Rugby, was one of South Carolina's greatest men. His mind was gigantic in its grasp; his piety was as unaffected as it was pure and sincere; his influence over young men was marvelous. Indeed, the feeling toward this great man, which he so unconsciously inspired in all who knew him, was little short of reverence.

Dr. Snyder has made for himself a nation-wide reputation as a speaker, an educator and an administrator. He has brought Wofford College into possibly wider recognition than any other small college in America. Moreover, the College has developed and expanded under his administration to a remarkable extent, as the following comparative table will show:

Dr. Snyder's love for and loyalty to Wofford College have been indeed remarkable. A native of Tennessee and graduate of Vanderbilt University, he came to Wofford in 1890, a complete stranger to the State of South Carolina. But in a very short time he had become, not only known, but appreciated and admired throughout the length and breadth of the land. Today his name is a household word, spoken with affection in countless families from which sons have gone to abide under his tuition and influence, and thence to go out into the world and make good and useful citizens.

Dr. Snyder has received numerous offers from other institutions, and with larger salaries, but he has chosen to give these fifty-three years of his life to Wofford College, and still remains, as teacher and President Emeritus, to give the last ripe and rich years of his life to assisting in the administration of the College, and in exerting the influence of mind and heart upon the young men who pass through those sacred halls.

Upon the retirement of Dr. Snyder in 1942, Dr. Walter K. Greene was elected president, being the first Wofford alumnus to be elevated to this position. During his first year he has given full promise of an administration of great achievement. A complete survey has been made of the most pressing needs and the alumni and friends of the College have been challenged with a program which envisions a post-war institution fitted to welcome our boys to a well-furnished college home, fully equipped to give them the education and training their lives demand. Acting upon the right of way granted to Wofford by action of the Conferences for the period from 1940 to 1945, Dr. Greene has outlined the following objectives: (1) Campus Improvements; (2) Renovation of Buildings, with special reference to adequacy, convenience and comfort; (3) New Buildings; (4) Increase in Faculty and general working staff; (5) Retirement Plan for teachers; (6) Increase of $400,000.00 in Permanent Endowment and provision for Living Endowment, consisting of pledges, paid annually, the aggregate amount of which would be equivalent to the proceeds of invested endowment of large proportions.

Through efforts so far made, from August, 1942, to September 1943, the resources of the college have been increased by $80,662.00 of which $61,480.00 is in cash. Some of these funds have gone to increase of endowment and endowed scholarships. Of this total, the following specified amounts should be noted: Marion District, $15,000.00 pledged, and $13,126.00 paid, for renovation of Snyder Hall;

Orangeturn District, $20,600.00 assumed, and $8,410.00 paid, for renovation of Carlisle Hall. The City of Spartanburg and the Spartanburg District, asked for $50,000.00 for the beautification of the campus, have, to date, pledged $13,975.00 of which $5,350.00 is in cash.

Beginning immediately following the Conferences of 1943, the remaining nine Districts are to be canvassed for the raising of a fund of $100,000.00. Of this amount, $80,000.00 is to be used for the erection of a Student Activities Building and $20,000.00 for a Chapel. The urgent need for these buildings is easily seen. The former would afford facilities for all student organizations and activities. There would be a coffee shop, college store, post-office, and room for visiting alumni and parents of students. It would furnish a sort of home atmosphere, afford much-needed relaxation and foster a common community spirit. For their religious life, students need a building in the nature of a church, enshrining an atmosphere of worship, inviting to rest and meditation and prayer. Such a centre would grow into deeper and deeper sacredness as the years pass, and would serve secretly to unite and concentrate all the religious influences of the college life. The building planned is to be a War Memorial Chapel, a memorial to all who have given their services in present and past wars, and to all who have died.

The spirit and eloquence of Dr. Greene's appeals thus far have met with such an enthusiastic and liberal response that we are encouraged to believe the remaining nine districts will promptly contribute the amount needed for these two last-named buildings.

Just as this address was being prepared, our new President was mentioned in the press as being offered the presidency of one of the largest institutions in South Carolina. His reply was, "I came to Wofford to do a special piece of work, and at the present time I am not considering any other position." And that is more than eloquence. It is the old Wofford spirit.

6. War Training Program

During the 1942-43 session of the College the whole plant, including the Faculty, was placed under control of the Army for training, in basic subjects, the 41st Air Cadet Corps. There are 470 boys (a "fine lot" says Dr. Snyder), coming from almost every state in the Union. The program calls for 94 to go out every month and the same number of new men to come in. Regular classes of the College are housed on the Converse and Spartanburg Junior College campuses. And here also the R. O. T. C. boys are found, about 100 strong.

More than 1100 of Wofford's alumni are now in the armed forces, sea, air and land, 85 per cent. of them being officers, from a General and two Rear-Admirals, all down the line. Many have been decorated for distinguished service. And some have already given their lives in this struggle for world-peace and freedom.

7. Ideals

A report concerning the college, made to the Conference of 1869, bears the following language: "Here not only is the fire of genius cherished and the lamp of Philosophy trimmed, but here also burns brightly the candle which God has lighted for a benighted world." As to how this twofold purpose of the development of mind and soul was subsequently carried out, let the following incident attest: On one occasion a noted educator was a visitor in the City of Spartanburg. In conversation with a citizen he inquired as to the secret of the manifest progress of the city. The reply was "Smokestacks and Wofford College." Asked further about the college, he said, "I did not have the privilege of being a student of Wofford, being educated elsewhere; but they have been making men over there for sixty years." And as to how fully such testimony is justified, the friends of Wofford point with pride to the roll of her alumni, stretching from the highest positions of honor and trust in church and state down through every profession and vocation. Would we had time to call that roll today. But, without attributing lesser honor to any true son of Wofford, we feel constrained to record the names of the following men of note:

Samuel Dibble, First Graduate (1854), Congressman.
 Ellison D. Smith, United States Senator.

And so the vision lingers with us, of that golden line interwoven with the history of South Carolina, of our great nation and of many lands beyond, and high over all, those classic towers, and, in the background the faces of the great men whose hearts throbbed out their lives in purest sacrifice to this very end.

We have common ideals and common convictions. We believe that truth and personality are the mightiest forces on earth; that truth is the foundation of all enduring life, and that experience of the truth constitutes the highest attainment of the human soul. We believe that Christian education equips and frees the soul for its ordained service in the world, and that the brotherhood of man will come as a natural consequence when the soul's vision is broadened and its sympathies enlarged through the thought and spirit of Christ. We believe that leaders of men must be leaders of thought; and that Christian character is required to impress the thought of Christ upon the world.

We believe that the final warfare of the forces of Righteousness is being fought out in the Spiritual realm, and that mighty powers must be built up in the souls of men to equip them for this battle, this battle of thought and purpose, of principles and ideals.

We believe that the Church of Jesus Christ is the Divinely ordained agency for the accomplishment of the salvation of the world and that unity of purpose throughout all its varied organization is essential to success. And so we pledge ourselves anew to that spirit of co-operation which has blessed our labors throughout the years.

When Benjamin Wofford trusted his fortune to the founding of this College, he made a venture of faith that has challenged the fidelity of the South Carolina Conference in every decade of these eighty-nine years. And her jealous supervision has been rewarded by a history of splendid achievement. Trustees, faculty, the Conferences as legally-constituted bodies, the Methodist constituency at large, have all been united by a common interest, a common appreciation, a common sense of trust. For her faculty, men have been found to fill every demand and cast the measure and meaning of their lives into a glorious harmony of influence to produce full-rounded manhood and, through that, bring to Church and State the living proofs of her service.

It is in this purpose that College and Conferences are united as by a living bond. And, whether torn by the fearful shock of war or confronted with the task of establishing the foundations of enduring peace, we feel ourselves still holding to our common standards and ideals, trusting their virtue to face bravely all that the future may bring to our nation and to the world.

Church and College are not growing away from each other. They are moving together in a common purpose toward a common goal. Christian manhood is the goal and Christ is the Pattern. Under His leadership we are united, and by His blessing we shall attain!

MISCELLANEOUS

STANDING RULES

Standing Rules for the South Carolina Annual Conference

A. General Regulations:

1. The Bishop, the District Superintendents, and the Host Pastor shall be a Committee to arrange the Annual Conference Program.

2. As far as applicable the parliamentary rules of the last General Conference shall govern this body.

3. Lay members of Boards and Committees (who are not members of the Conference) may have the privileges of the floor for speaking to their reports.

4. Reports from Boards, Commissions and Committees, together with all resolutions to the Conference, shall be presented in triplicate.

5. The Committee on Nominations shall be responsible for the selection of persons to write the memoirs of preachers who have died during the year. These shall be published in the printed Journal. A page shall be inscribed to the memory of preachers' wives, and widows, deceased.

6. A Contingent Fund of $250, shall be maintained out of the funds collected for the secretarial and Journal expense: in order to finance (1) commission, (2) judicial proceedings, and (3) other proper needs unprovided for. The Conference Treasurer shall be the custodian of this fund, and shall make disbursements on order of the Conference, or of the cabinet in the interim.

7. No trustee or member of the faculty or staff of any institution, or manager of any interest, shall at the same time be a member of the parent or supervising board or commission, unless otherwise required by the Discipline.

B. Ministerial Character and Records:

1. In accordance with the optional provisions of paragraph 465 in the Discipline, the name of each Preacher shall be called in open Conference session. At the completion of the call, by districts, the District Superintendent shall answer for the characters of all the Preachers in his District; provided, that the names of retired preachers, undergraduates, local elders, and those serving appointments other than pastoral charges, may be called at the discretion of the presiding Bishop.

2. The Committee on Conference Relations and Ministerial Qualifications, and the Board of Ministerial Training shall prepare each year jointly for the Conference Secretary, a statement concerning the age, domestic status, education and ministerial experience of each preacher admitted on trial; and a similar statement concerning each preacher admitted into full connection; these statements to be included in the daily journal.

C. Nominations and Board Organization:

1. The District Superintendents shall be a Standing Committee on Nominations for membership on Boards, Commissions, and Standing Committees, and shall also make nominations for vacancies occurring in same, except as otherwise provided for in the Discipline or by Conference order.

2. When a minister is appointed as District Superintendent his membership on any Disciplinary Board, Commission, or Committee automatically ceases; provided, that this shall not apply to ex-officio membership on Disciplinary Boards, nor to membership on Boards of Trustees, Boards of Managers, or service on Commissions and Committees when nominations are made by groups other than the Conference Committee on Nominations. All vacancies which may occur shall be filled from nominations made by the Conference Committee on Nominations before the final adjournment of the Annual Conference.

3. Each quadrennial Board shall be convened for organization (at which a majority of members must be present) by a District Superintendent appointed by the Bishop. The election of officers shall be by ballot.

4. Quadrennial Boards, Commissions and Committees shall assume their functions upon the adjournment of the Annual Conference except as otherwise required by the Discipline or by Conference action.

D. Board of Missions and Church Extension:

1. The Board of Missions and Church Extension shall be composed of one Layman from each district, an equal number of ministers, and such other additional members as are required by the Discipline.

E. Board of Education:

1. The Board of Education shall be composed of one layman from each district, and an equal number of ministers, such other additional members as provided for in the Discipline, and ex-officio, any member of the General Board of Education, living within the bounds of the Conference, unless precluded elsewhere in the Standing Rules. Additional nominations proposed by the Board shall be made only after consultation with the Cabinet.

2. Every two years (even numbered years) the Board shall nominate suitable persons to be elected by the Conference as Trustees of our educational institutions, including four managers of the Southern Christian Advocate. All of which institutions shall make their reports through this Board.

3. The Board of Education and the Board of Ministerial Training shall cooperate in appointing the Board of Managers for the Pastors' School.

4. Offerings for Church School Rally Day, Methodist Student Day, and Race Relations Sunday shall be sent to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Education.

F. Board of Conference Claimants:

1. The Board of Conference Claimants shall be composed of six laymen and an equal number of ministers.

2. Appropriations to our claimants shall be sent direct to them.

G. Board of Hospitals and Homes:

1. There shall be a Board of Hospitals and Homes as provided for in the Discipline.

2. The Board of Hospitals and Homes shall receive the annual report of Epworth Orphanage and transmit same to the Annual Conference; and every two years (even numbered years) shall nominate to the Annual Conference suitable persons to be elected Managers of Epworth Orphanage.

3. The Board shall have authority to use Golden Cross or other available funds for the hospitalization of retired ministers, their wives, widows, and dependent children, widows and dependent children of ministers who have died in service; provided, that not more than $50 shall be appropriated to any particular case during an Annual Conference year.

H. Board of Temperance:

1. The Board of Temperance shall be composed of one layman from each district and an equal number of ministers.

I. World Peace Commission:

1. This Commission shall be composed of four ministers and three laymen, and shall make an annual report to the Annual Conference.

J. Committee on Special Days:

1. There shall be a quadrennial Committee on Special Days composed of one representative from each Disciplinary Board, to which shall be referred all requests for the observance of special days, with or without offerings, other than provided for in the Discipline.

2. This Committee shall prepare and present to the Annual Conference a calendar of Special Days for its approval for the Conference year, including those required by the Discipline.

K. Journal and Yearbook:

1. There shall be a quadrennial Committee composed of four ministers and three laymen, together with the Secretary and Statistician ex-officio, which shall publish the Journal annually. This Committee shall also estimate yearly the amount needed to (1) publish the Journal and Yearbook, (2) finance the work of the Secretary and Statistician, (3) maintain the Contingent Fund, as provided for in A-6, and report its estimate to the Commission on World Service.

2. The Conference Journal shall be printed according to the recommendation of paragraph 1633 of the Discipline, with the Standing Rules and Statistics added.

3. The printed Journal shall be the official record of the Annual Conference.

4. A Committee shall be elected annually to examine the daily journal and report to the Conference.

L. Distribution of Apportionments:

1. The amount allotted by the Annual Conference to the Districts for Conference and Connectional purposes shall be apportioned to the charges by the District Stewards.

M. Benevolence Funds:

1. The Conference Treasurer shall be the custodian of all funds collected on the budget for Annual Conference Benevolences, and he may in the interim, upon request, pay to any Conference Boards such funds as he may have on hand to meet their needs; provided, that the pro rata required shall be duly observed in the final settlement.

2. Boards, Commissions and Committees of the Conference receiving appropriations shall make an annual report to the Conference giving an itemized statement of all receipts, disbursements and funds on hand.

3. The Commission on World Service and Finance shall include in the askings for Conference Work, annually, an amount for insurance sufficient to pay to the designated beneficiary the sum of $750.00 upon the death of a clerical member of the Conference. These funds shall be administered by the Conference Treasurer and the Executive Committee of the Commission on World Service and Finance. The Commission shall make an annual report to the Conference of all disbursements of this fund.

N. Districts:

1. There shall be 5 Districts in the South Carolina Annual Conference.

O. District Conferences:

1. A District Conference shall be held annually in each District.

2. Each pastoral charge shall be entitled to one lay delegate, elected annually by the quarterly conference, in addition to the membership provided for in the Discipline.

P. Support of District Superintendents:

1. In harmony with paragraph 840 of 1940 Discipline.

Q. Lay Delegates to the Annual Conference:

1. The Lay Delegate and the Reserve Lay Delegate to the Annual Conference shall be elected annually in each pastoral charge.

R. Election Managers:

1. At any session of the Annual Conference where there are to be elections of Officers or Delegates by ballot, there shall be elected a Board of Managers composed of one minister and one layman from each District, which shall conduct elections as the Annual Conference shall direct.

S. Election of Delegates:—General and Jurisdictional Conferences:

1. Delegates to the General and the Jurisdictional Conferences shall be elected according to the recommendations of the General Conference in paragraph 351, Section 3, in the Discipline.

T. Standing Rules Committee:

1. There shall be a quadrennial Committee on Standing Rules composed of five persons.

2. This Committee shall make an annual report immediately following the organization of the Conference.

U. Amendments to Standing Rules:

1. Proposed amendments to the Standing Rules may be submitted by any member of the Conference and shall be referred to the Committee on Standing Rules for consideration and report to the Conference.
